VERSE ONE

I turn from my old ways
Give up what I've achieved
Surrender all my crowns
And lay them at your feet

Your love has overcome
And you made a way for me
You've broken every chain
And set this captive free

PRE-CHORUS

I'm letting go of all that's held me down
No holding back, I'm running to you now

CHORUS

I'm caught in the arms of your embrace
Overwhelmed by the measure of your grace
No matter what I've done
Your mercy overcomes
You disarm by love

VERSE TWO

I am free from guilt and shame
And rid every of fear
No longer am I bound
To the doubt that I held near

My heart cannot contain
The love you have for me
You've been there all along
I was blind but now I see

PRE-CHORUS

I'm letting go of all that's held me down
No holding back, I'm running to you now

CHORUS

I'm caught in the arms of your embrace
Overwhelmed by the measure of your grace
No matter what I've done
Your mercy overcomes
You disarm by love

BRIDGE

Oh I'm running, I'm running
I'm running to your arms
I let go, surrender
To everything you are

CHORUS 2

Oh I hear, you calling out my name
And my life will never be the same
No matter what I've done
Your mercy overcomes
You disarm by love
