

TRUE NORTH

WRITTEN BY METHVEN FORBES

Verse One

You're washing away my sin
You're washing away my shame
The chains that once imprisoned me
Are the chains that lay crushed beneath my feet

Verse Two

You're filling me with your life
You're filling me with your power
Now everything I once held dear
I count as lost for the joy of knowing you

Chorus

I live for you
I live for you
I count as gain everything I have lost
For the joy of knowing you

I lift my hands
I give my all
There's nothing I want more than to give
Everything I am to you

Bridge

You are true north
My way, my life, you saved me
I'm heaven bound
But whilst on earth I'll serve you

For you have called me
To a higher purpose
To spread the news of
How you came to save us all
